

CONTINUED FROM PAGE TWO.

for which Mr. Livingstone is the archi

Mr. George Bernamen has returned to his home in town after some time spent in Cumberland, Md. Mr. and Mrs. M. Herman, of Pitts-burgh, spent a few days in town during the past week before leaving for

Mr. William Staires and Mr. Milton Grailer, of Philadelphia, spent a short time in town last week the guests of Miss Celeste Goodman, of this city, left last week for New York to spend some time.

Messrs. Ned and Gilbert Lieberles, of Baltimore, spent a short time in the city last week the guest of friends.

Mrs. Henry H. Negley, Miss M. Alice legley and Mr. Alexander Negley, of Pittsburgh, are at the Shoreham for some

Mrs. M. Singer, of New York, is spending a few weeks in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goldsmith.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Nordlinger are spending a few weeks in Atlantic City, before returning to their home in town. Mrs. Harry Franc has returned to the city after a short visit to Newark, N. J., the guest of her father, Rabbi Leutch. Mrs. Rudolf Behrend entertained the Afternoon Bridge Club Friday last at her home.

Mrs. Mark S. Willing, of Chicago, has arrived at the Shoreham.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bullett, of Louisen route from Palm Beach.

Prof. Leo Loeb spent a short time in town during the past week, before r turning to his home in Annapolis, Md. Mr. and Mrs. A. Weyl, of Sheridan street, returned last week to Washington after a ten days' stay in Atlantic City. Miss Dorothy Stiefel is spending some time with friends in Baltimore, where the went to attend the dance given in honor of Miss Gebhard.

Miss Miriam Franc, of Goucher College. Baltimore, is spending a short time da town, the guest of her parents. Mrs. Eugene Young returned last wee to her home in town after a ten days stay in Atlantic City. Mr. Sylvan Strauss, of Richmond, ts now permanently forated in this city. The Misses Helen Fischer, Hortense King, and Esther Kahn are spending a short time with friends in town. Mesers, Sidney Allman and Philip Arnold, of Philadelphia, spent a short time with friends in town during the past

The marriage of Miss Edith Auerbach and Mr. Daniel Fishell will take place in Chicago, at noon, April 15. Miss Aper-bach was formerly a Washingtonian and is well known throughout the city.

Miss Hetty Abrahams, of Farm School, Pa., is spending a short time in town, the ifelen Roberts was in charge of the envelow. Covers were laid for sixteen.

Mrs. William Scantibury entertained the members of the Embroidery Club of Anneostia at lear home. 12.7 Minnesota avenue, at luncheon lest Wednesday.

Mrs. Cantibury entertained the members of the Embroidery Club of Anneostia at lear home. 12.7 Minnesota avenue, at luncheon lest Wednesday.

Mrs. C. E. Boyle left yesterday for a learner of the fraction.

Mrs. C. E. Boyle left yesterday for a learner of the fraction. Anacostia at her home, 1217 Minnesota away from the Section since their margarence, at huncheon lest Wednesday.

Mrs. M. E. Hoffman and Mrs. Thomas the finite form of the instruction. These present included to their home in Avalan terrare following. Scantlebury, Mrs. Edward F. Wood. In their home in Avalan terrare following. W. W. Tolson, Mrs. Thomas L. Moore, Mrs. Edward F. Wood. Mrs. Thomas L. Moore, Mrs. Home in Avalan terrare following part were to the their marging and Mrs. W. F. Swann, Mrs. Albert M. M. Morton, Mrs. Edward A. Coombs. Mrs. Howard A. Coombs. Mrs. Howard A. Coombs. Mrs. Howard A. J. Ross, 221 North Patrick Street, Tuesday night by Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Edward F. Wood. Mrs. Edward F. Wood. Mrs. Home in Avalan terrare following part were to the Edward A. J. Ross, 221 North Patrick Street, Tuesday night by Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Edward F. Wood. Mrs. Edward F. Wood. Mrs. Lating T. Amonologue Orange, N. J., will spend the Easter holi. A. J. Ross, Mrs. J. W. Snencer Mrs. Dewalt, Mrs. S. D. Frazier, Mrs. Edvard F. Wood. Mrs. Edward F. Wood. Mrs. Edward F. Wood. Mrs. Lating T. Amonologue Orange, N. J., will spend the Easter holi. ward Frisbie, Mrs. B. D. Fillius, and Mrs. N. R. Harnish.

visiting relatives and friends in Anacos- enjoyed and music.

Electa Chapter, No. 2. Order of th Eastern Flar, conducted a social meet-ing on Tuesday evening last in the local Masoule Hall. Instrumental and vocal elections were contributed and refresh ments served in the banquet hall. Mrs.

MRS. JOHN R. DREXEL, who is prominent in New York and Philadelphia society.

MRS. JOHN R. DREXEL.

Helen Roberts was in charge of the en-tertainment, while Mrs. Francis Gurn-tart in the evening Mr. Edgar Priest of Baltimore, have returned after a pleas-sey had charge of the refreshments. Edgar evening Mr. Edgar Priest of Baltimore, have returned after a pleas-tart visit to friends in Spencer street, here. ey had charge of the refreshments.

Dewalt, Mrs. S. D. Frazier, Mrs. Edward Frisbie, Mrs. E. D. Fillius, and Mrs. N. R. Harnish.

The Similar school department of the Congress Heights M. E. Church held a social gathering in the letter room of the charch on Theology evening of the days with relatives in New York.

Mrs. Jarboe, of Frince George County, Mrs. has returned to her home after pass week. Games of various kinds were days with relatives in New York.

Mrs. Robert L. Corby gave a tea on

CHEVY CHASE.

Why Spend So Much For

YOUR SPRING HAT

When We Can Make a Beautiful

New Model of Your Last Year's Straw

blocking makes possible results that no others can duplicate.

A Large Variety of $5 and $6 Panama Hats—Special at ... $3.75 sible on Ladies' and Children's Panama Hats. We are also spe-

"If It's a Hat, We Can Do It"

FACTORY

VIENNA HAT CO.

Opp. Harrington Hotel

One profit from maker to you makes this factory price pos-

We can resew and reblock your last summer's Straw Hat and transform it into the smartest new Spring style. It will be new in every respect, and the cost is trifling. Our work of this kind is absolutely the best in the city Our improved machinery for bleaching, cleaning, and cialists in bleaching and reblocking Panamas.

435 11th St.

gave several selections on the organ.

and Miss Mabel Latimer. A monologue Orange, N. J., will spend the Easter holi-was given by Mr. L. D. Latimer. Re- days as the guest of Miss Dorothy Hol-

Mrs. Robert L. Corby gave a tea on both yoral and in Tuesday, to which the officers and new of the Chevy Chase Chapter of looked most attractive with spring flow-The officers are Mrs. Corby, Mrs. homas Robinson, Mrs. Eugene Stevens, and New York City. Mrs. J. L. Weaver, and Mrs. R. S.

> The Pive Hundred Club has postponed Mrs. Joseph Barkart will be its hostess. Mr. and Mrs. John L. Beatle have indiations out for April 2 from 8 to 11 clock, the occasion being their silver

Little Miss Louise Hochling had a few her friends in the neighborhood on Saturday to help her spend her fourth

The Misses Moon, of Binghamton, N Y., arrived on Thursday for a visit to Mrs. C. D. Parker.

Mrs. Arthur Copeland will leave on Vednesday for an Indefinite visit to rela-

Mrs. E. N. Wright entertained her unt. Mrs. S. M. Hamilton, of Baltimore, ast week.

Among those of Chevy Chase entertaining during the week at the Chevy Chase Club were Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Meredith and Mrs. H. M. Southgate. Mrs. W. L. Mactier is visiting in Chestaut Hill, Philadelphia, Pa. Mr. E. C. Graham has returned from a fortulght trip to Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. R. S. Reuss was hostess Wednes lay at cards. Lieut Commander J. V. Chase and Mrs. Thase are in New York.

Mrs. Mary Green left last week for New York, where she will visit relatives. Dr. and Mrs. James Dudley Morgan reopen their house this coming

The Chevy Chase dancing class has held its last meeting of the season Miss Miriam Curtis, who has been ney, has returned to her home.

Mrs. Hafold Walker, who has been pending some time in Mexico with her husband, has returned to her ho

Mrs. S. H. Paschal has returned from a few days spent at Atlantic City. The last meeting of the Reading Class was held on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Clift R. Richards.

Lieut. William H. Santelmann was host on Monday from 6 to 8 when he received a large number of his men friends at his home in Connecticut avenue. The occasion was the silver jubilee of Lieut. Santelmann's connecion with the Marine Band.

Mrs. John L. Weaver and daughter, Constance, are at Atlantic City. Miss Janet Richards is having her ome remodeled and will take posses-home remodeled and will take possession about April 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Y. R. Furman and Miss Ethel Furman, of Jersey City, spent the greater part of the week in who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. JoWashington attending the annual Baltiseph A. Burkart, have left for their home.

GEORGETOWN.

Mrs. S. S. Robards, who has been visiting Miss Doma Berry, has returned to the League Island, Pa., Navy Yard, where Capt. Robards is doing duty.

Mrs. Dennison Recside has returned from her home in Columbia, Pa., where she was called by the death of her father, Dr. Armor.

The Evermay Club met on Thursday at the home of Mrs. W. B. Orme. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Smoot, Mrs. Jeffries, vice president, presided. Papers were read by Miss Henrietta Woods and Miss May Dunconson. Mrs. G. P. Du Bose discussed current topics

Mrs. J. Carter Fort has returned from a visit to the home of Dr. Burruell, near Annapolis, Md. Mrs. Fort will make her home with her mother, Mrs. Nicholson,

Mrs. Alexander Kearney, of Roanoke, Va., who has been visiting her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce, has left for her

Mrs. J. H. Doyle, who has been spend-ing some time with her son and daugh-ter-in-law in New York, has returned Va., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Marbury.

Mr. Hunter Duvall, who was the guest during the week of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Wormley. and elster, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Wormley. has returned to his home in Staunton, Va. Mrs. W. W. Alt, of Nebrasks, arrived yesterday and will be the guest of Mrs. W. C. Hibbs for two weeks.

Mrs. John C. Kondrup will entertain for the month of April Mrs. R. H. Merri-

Miss Emily Matthews is visiting in

Mrs. G. A. Merriman, who has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Ames, left during the week for her home in Marblehead, Mass. Miss Merriman is still the guest of Miss Ames, and will join her mother later.

The "Mother Goose" entertainment presented by the sewing school girls of the Christ Child Society, for the fresh air home, is making rapid progress under the able instructions of Miss Ridgway. The entertainment will be given on Tuez-day, April 13, at Linthieum Hall, and among those who will contribute to the evening's pleasure are Mr. George H. O'Connor, Mrs. Gumprecht, and Howard Brothers.

Mr. A. K. Parris and his daughter-inlaw, Mrs. Keith Parris, returned Friday from Old Point Comfort, LAUREL.

Mrs. Grenville Lewis visited friends and relatives in Baltimore this week. Mrs. L. A. Johnston, who has been spending the month of March with the Misses Goldsborough, has returned to her home in Washington.

Miss Robinson, of Washington, bas been the guest of Miss Elizabeth Gil-bert at her home, Wheatlands. Mr. and Mrs. Haggar, who have just returned from Havana, have been the guests of Mrs. Katie Waters. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Duvall have re-turned to Washington after spending a week in Laurel.

Mrs. Valentine, of Fairmont, W. Va., is the guest of Miss Sample in La-fayette avenue. Mr. Henry M. Scott has gone on a trip to South Carolina.

HYATTSVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Henderson Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Brewer, Franklin

Mrs. F. E. McManus has been visiting friends, den, Italston avenue.

Miss Sarah Belt, of near Springfield, has been visiting Mrs. M. Hardesty, near this place inton, have been visiting Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Wells, Spencer street here. Town Treasurer William A. Shepherd has returned from a trip to Pittsburgh A delightful dance was given in the Knights of Pythias hall Thursday even-ing, under the management of a committee from the Berwyn Five Hundred llub. About 100 guests were present.

ROCKVILLE.

Rockville, Md., March 7.-Mr. and Mrs. John H. Parsley, of Brockeville, this county, have announced the engage-ment of their daughter, Miss Ida Jackson Parsley, and Mr. Lee Clagett Warfield, of Laytonsville, the marriage to take place

Among the couples married in Rock ville during the week were Lewis Conner and Mrs. Eliza Sipes, both of this county Lee Totten and Miss Lena Fant, both of Berryville, Va.; Walter Joseph Hogue Berryville, Va.; Walter Joseph Hogue and Miss Mary Imogen Wilson, both of Washington.

Mrs. Annie McGuire, of New York City is a guest at the home of Mayor and Mrs. Lee Offutt here.

The last meeting of the Newcomb Club of Bethesda was held at the home of Mrs. Edward Duncan, at Alta Vista. with a large attendance of members and others. The program included a pape on "Civic Improvements," by the president, Miss Florence Miller; a general discussion, and other features.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Gardiner Dafby entertained the Mite Society of the Southern Methodist Church a few evenings ago. An interesting program was rendered. after which refreshments were served The home was attactively decorated with evergreens, etc.

Mrs. Mary Fisher, of Columbus. Oh has been a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Etchison, near Etchison, this county.

Mrs. William D. Thomas and Mrs. Ja-son P. Warthen, of Kensington, are spending some time at Atlantic City as guests of Mrs. Carroll Warthen, a former resident of Kensington. Mrs. Dorsey L. Mullinix and little son have returned to their home in the up-per section of the county after visiting lends in Baltimore, Misses Agnes and Mamle Matlack have reopened their home in Rockville after spending the winter in Washington. Mrs. Beverly W. Bond, of Leesturg

Va., has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Martha Magruder, here. Mrs. Robert B. Peter entertained the missionary society of the Presbyterian Church Friday afternoon. Following an interesting program, refreshments served. Rev. Samuel R. White, of the Baptis Church, officiated at the marriage here a few days ago of Miss Clara M. Ham-mond and Mr. Samuel L. Davis, both of Philipsborn THE OUTER ARMENT SHOP 608 TO 614 ELEVENTH STREET.

Easter Millinery Modes

An unusually complete showing of smart styles adapted from the French by our own designers-also many original creations from our own workrooms-

At Moderate Prices

Exclusive Easter Fashions

Complete and comprehensive showing of the season's picturesque styles in Gowns, Wraps, Costumes, Tailored Suits, Dressy and Sport Coats at unusually attractive prices.

Women's and Misses' Suits for Easter

Smart and exclusive models of Tweed, Homespun, Serge, Gabardine, Checks, Taffeta and Faille Silks in prevailing colors.

$29.50 $40.00 $55.00 $25.00

Women's and Misses' New Spring Coats

Coats of Serge, Cords and Garbardine...$15.00 $20.0) $25.00 Mannish Coats of Tweeds and Coverts. $15.00 $20.00 $25.00 Coats of Silk Poplin and Bengaline....$20.00 $25.00 $35.00 Coats of White Chinchilla and Golfine. $15.00 $20 00 $25.00

Women's Afternoon and Dancing Dresses

Exact copies of the latest Parisian fashions; new color combinations of Crepe de Chine, Pussy Willow, Crepe Meteor. Chiffon Taffeta, Flowered Crepe, Net and Lingerie.

$15.00 $25.00 $35.00 $45.00

Women's New Spring Blouses

Voile, Lingerie and Linen $1.00 $1.95 Crepe de Chine and Georgette Crepe ... $5.50 $7.50 $10.00 Striped Silks and Linens.....$1.95 $2.95

more conference of the Southern Metho-

Mrs. George P. Henderson was the street, will leave shortly for their new here a few afternoons ago, her guests home near Cherrydale, Va. hostess at a bridge party at her home

Old Dominion Division, No. 490, Grand International Auxiliary to the Bro-therhood of Locomotive Engineers. Prizes were awarded Mr. Maurice this place.

Dr. and Mrs. Albert B. Hyatt, of WashInterpretable of MashInterpretable of

A birthday party for Mr. Peter Hoy was given Thursday night at Mr. Hoy's home, 1204 Prince street. It was attended by a number of relatives and friends.

The Junior German Club gave a dance Friday afternoon in the auditorium of the Elks' Home. Miss Ida Foote, who has been visit-ing Miss Mary Johnson at her home in Prince street, has returned to her ome at Catletts, Va. Mr. J. T. Preston has returned from short trip to Warrenton, Va.

Mrs. Laurence Stabler has gone to andy Springs, Md., for a brief visit. Mrs. C. S. Taylor Burke is visiting er parents in Richmond.

Miss Esther Burke is visiting lew York City. The Junior German Club is making preparations for a fancy dress ball which will be given May 7 in the auditorium of the Elks' Home.

Mr. John M. Johnson has returned rom Richmond, where he attended meeting of the board or visitors of the Medical College of Virginia. Messrs. Percy E. Clift and W. S. Connelly have returned from a short visit to Richmond.

Mrs. Robert S. Barrett and little daughter, Miss Viola, nave returned from Charleston, W. Va., where they visited Mrs. William Campbell. Mr. Herbert E. Stansbury, of Tucuart. N. M., is visiting his father. Mr. Daniel R. Stansbury, 297 North

Columbus street. Miss Christina McArthur Kemper, of Rosemont, accompanied by her house ruest, Miss Clementia Cheston, of West River, Md., is visiting Miss Marorle Burwell, West River, Md.

Mrs. M. L. Horner was nostess Fri-Rosemont, at the meeting of the Rosemont Afternoon Card Club. Guests were Miss Petticord, of Baltimore; Miss Mamie Lindsey, Miss Marion Lindsey, Members present were Mrs. Charles E. Dare, Mrs. Leonard Reed, Mrs. John Chester Freeland. Gregg, Mrs. Wilmer Joyce Waller, Mrs. Henry O'Bannon Cooper.

MUZZLE LEAKS SECRETS.

in High Places in British Councils Indiscreet.

pecial Cable to The Washington Herald. London, March 26.—A warning has just been given in the newspapers against the lack of discretion in high places. While the English press is muzzled, men who certainly ought to know better are babbling all kinds of secrets in the most childlike manner. The leakage has never been bad where admiralty is concerned, and navy secrets have been kept better than army news.

A naval officer said today: "If we as much as breathe the name of the port at which any of our transports or other boats are expected, there is a submarine waiting for them.

FASHIONS AT THE CAPITAL

Well-dressed Women of Washington's Smart Society Their Gowns, Their Hats, Their Furs, and Their Laces

By MARGARET WADE.

Even war clouds have a lining for the favored optimists, both and black. This was presumably a jacko men and women, who are passing et suit of black satin, or satin serge these early spring days in Washing- which on rmboving the jacket showei resort he knew, so is Washington becoming the great American resort of the western hemisphere from October to June. Even that small portion of in front and has a long narrow collaise. the polite world which President Wilson describes as high society, and says we could very well do without, is paying tribute to Washington as it the waist line. Topping this, the Amreturns from the actificial su sports of Lake Worth, and the their claims for attention all the way from that misnamed lake to the threshold of the Capital.

pursuit), there is, of course, no reason why the frivolous or extravagant individuality in dress from the mos should prefer Washington to Palm conservative materials. should prefer Washington to Fain should prefer Washington to Fain Beach, yet it is a gratifying reflection to all good Americans that the best representatives of every part of this big country incline to the Federal city, when on pleasure bent, and they have the price to pay.

The Paris Rome and in Berlin, is now per should be the should be the price to pay.

Several large houses, notably Mrs. Paris, Rome and in Berlin, is now per-Marshall Field's, Mr, and Mrs. Larz manently established in their new Wash-Anderson's, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward ington home, where she is giving a series Beale McLean's, closed for the greater of well appointed dinners quite as smart part of the winter, have been reopened as any entertainments of her mother for the post-Lenten season to follow in-law, Mrs. Robert R. Hitt, long one of an unusually early Easter. There are the recognized leaders of Washington also many spring visitors promised at society, at its best period. A beautiful the leading hotels, with all Washing- gown worn recently by Mrs. Reynolds ton feeling the See America First Hitt is a yellow brocade satin, opening Movement, that appears to find a response from the most experienced Eu-ropean travelers of other years as well follow the man from Cooks.

The Italian Embassy has a great ac quisition to its social as well as official character in the new first secretary and his wife, the Marquis and Marquise Arrigo Tacoli. The latter is an extremely youthful personage for her rank, with a slender, girlish figure and particularly attractive coloring, a very fair with a slender, girlish figure and par-ticularly attractive coloring, a very fair skin, with dark hair and eyes being her unusual type, which somewhat resembles that of the young Mme. Dumba, wife of the Ambassador from Austria-Hungary. The Marquise Tacoli at her first large The Marquise Tacoli at her first large the Ohio city. Miss Elliott wore a gown Washington dinner party wore a trained ruffled from waist to ankle entirely of washington dinner party wore a trained white tuile on a foundation of the same gown of white satin, draped about the white tuile on a foundation of the same grape in the new high effect with V- with under foundation of delicate pink figure in the new high effect with V-shaped sleeveless bodice and superb jewels in the form of necklace and tlars of diamonds. At the opera a few nights later, where she occupied a box with Ambassador and Countess di Cellere, she Afribassador and Counters di Cellere, she wore a black satin gown with top and short tunic of old church lace. This was the ideal toilet of the brief opera season. The top, while showing the usual fashionable low neck, was round rather than V-shaped, with the lace forming a drapery that covered the arm to the elbow, No jewels were worn on this accasion, for which the marquise were her hair parted in the middle and drawn back in soft loose waves to form quite a large coil at the back of her well-poised head. This colffure was in contrast to the now too popular close fashion that the front seat in the German Embass; box, wearing the latest thing in white Just as Senator Depew once a silver white satin blouse that does no London was the best summer blouse in the least, but appears to be straight-brimed hat of high luster black aggerated amusements that put forth barnyard straw, trimmed only in two-their claims for attention all the way round black silk pompons. This had from that misnamed lake to the differs from its smart neighbors of the threshold of the Capital.

. . . . Mme. Dumba, one of the smartly at-

As the Constitution of the United sattler family only by a hair line, just as the blouse differs from other and to pursuit of happiness (in no place does it guarantee the success of this by themselves. They also point the constitution of the United as the blouse, yet both are chic to a degree that puts them entirely in a class does it guarantee the success of this by themselves. They also point the by themselves. They also point the over a petticoat front of lace. has a train, as have most of its comfrom the spring vacationists who the drapery is slightly suggestive of the panier, but without the fullness thereof the rich yellow tones form the only trim

At the same dinner at which Mrs. Hitt wore her yellow gown two young beller from Cincinnati, Miss Helena Elliott and smart gowns, showing the Western city quite abreast of the times. These young women are nieces of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Gaff, now permanent residents of Washington, but formerly also of the Ohio city. Miss Elliott wore a gown satin. The bodice was also underlined with pink with the tulle folded about the tigure. Miss Hinkle, who is still wearing light mourning for her father, the late Charles Hinkle with white and black satin introduced

CONTINUED ON PAGE FOUR. MAYOR'S WALNUT-OIL one Sottle Compound HAIR DYS

Adress MAYOR WALNUT-OIL CO. Bept. Wash. 2827 Wysadoffe KangasGity, Me:.. E. S.A.